Dist Registrar was satisfied that under the authority quoted the document in question was not duly stamped & directed that it might be impounded, & the Sub Registrar accordingly impounded the document. Sub when the document ~~was~~ is forwarded to him by the Sub Registrar under sec 38(2) he (Dy. Comr) doubts if the document can be considered not duly stamped & asks for a definite ruling in the matter. It is not clear how he entertains this doubt when the Govt. Note of the 8th May 1908 is quite clear on the point. The Dy. Comr may be informed so. A draft is submitted accordingly for approval or other orders.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith a sale-deed executed on a Mysore Government stamp paper and produced for Registration before the Sub Registrar of Bangalore but impounded by him and forwarded by the Dy. Commissioner for adjudication of stamp duty on the ground that the paper in question was purchased in the civil and military station the endorsement wherein do not come under "Licensed vendors in the territories of Mysore appointed under the orders of a Dy. Commissioner or other Officer duly empowered in that behalf" as laid down in Section 2 of Rule 2 of Rules under the Bazar Stamps Regulation II of 1900 and to state that the endorsement on the reverse of the stamps paper in question shows that it was purchased from a Vendor in the Civil and Military Station who obtained the same from the Residents' Treasury.
